At a special Meeting of the Canadian Institute held in Convocation Hall of the University of Toronto on April 2, 1914, His Honour, Sir John Gibson, Lieut. Governor of Ontario, representing His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, Governor General of Canada, formally announced that "by virtue of the assent which has been graciously given by His Majesty the King this Institute shall hereafter be known and recognised as the Royal Canadian Institute."

REGULATIONS OF THE ROYAL CANADIAN INSTITUTE

(Consolidated and amended, May 1, 1920)

SECTION I.

MEMBERSHIP, ELECTIONS, AND FEES.

1. The Royal Canadian Institute, established under Royal Charter, November 4th, 1851, shall consist of Ordinary, Honorary, Corresponding, Life, Junior, and Associate members. All persons who are desirous of forwarding the objects of the Institute are eligible to membership.

2. Persons wishing to be admitted as Ordinary members must be proposed at least one week before election, in accordance with a form of application given in Form A, to be obtained from the Secretary. The election shall be by ballot, and the proportion of votes requisite for admission not less than three fourths of the votes cast. Provided that during the recess, i.e., between May 1st and November 1st, the Council (as hereinafter constituted) shall have power to elect members by the unanimous vote of those present at any meeting.

3. Persons under the age of 21 years may become Junior members. They shall not be subjected to election as above, but must be recommended by two members, in writing, according to Form B, and such recommendations shall be delivered to the Secretary, and transmitted to the Council for approval or rejection. On approval, the recommendation shall be signed by the Chairman, and the candidates shall be admitted. On their attaining the age of 21, they shall cease to be Junior Members but may transfer to such other class of membership as they desire on approval by the Council.

4. Honorary members shall be persons eminent for their services to science and literature, and their number shall be limited to twenty-five, of whom not more than ten shall be residents of Ontario. They must be recommended by at least three members, who shall state the reasons for their recommendation, in writing, such recommendation to be transmitted through the Secretary to the Council. If approved, it shall be signed by the Chairman, and read at the next ordinary meeting, previous to the ballot being taken.

5. Corresponding members shall be persons who have shown interest in the work of the Institute, or who have made or are likely to make contributions to the Proceedings or donations to the library, museums, etc. They shall be elected in the same way as Honorary Members for a term not exceeding five years. The number from the Province of Ontario shall not exceed ten.

6. Associate members shall be (a) ladies who do not desire full membership (see clause following) (b) members of Sections. They shall be admitted in the same way as Ordinary members.

7. Associate and Junior Members shall have all the privileges of membership, except the right of voting, holding office, taking part in the business management of the Institute, and receiving copies of its publications.

8. Honorary and Corresponding members shall have every privilege of Ordinary membership except that of holding office.

9. The annual fee or subscription shall be:—For Ordinary membership $5.00. For Associate or Junior membership $2.50. Provided that the schedule of fees obtaining before May 2, 1914 remain in force for members elected prior to that date.

Every Ordinary, Junior or Associate Member shall be liable to continued payment of the annual subscription until he has signified, in writing to the Secretary, his withdrawal, and paid all his dues to that date, when his liability shall cease. But any Ordinary Member not in arrears may compound for future subscriptions, and become a Life Member on payment of $100.

The Secretary shall inform each candidate of his election by sending Form C (appended), and if he fail to pay the proper fee within one month, the election shall become null, and no re-nomination shall be made unless the said fee is tendered along with the nomination paper. Until the payment of fees, no person shall enter into the privilege of membership.

In the event of an election taking place after the 31st of March in any year, the initial fee shall cover the next ensuing calendar year; but the member shall not be entitled to receive copies of the publications of the Institute for the year of election. All subscriptions shall be due for renewal on the first day of January (in advance).

The Council may at any time and from time to time make such regulations as it may deem expedient as to the amount of fees payable by members residing at a distance from Toronto.

Any member whose annual subscription is one year in arrear shall be reported to the Council at its first meeting in October, and unless the Council shall otherwise decide, shall be suspended from membership, and shall be notified of such suspension; but such member may be re-instated within the year upon payment of arrears.

Only members in good standing shall be entitled to vote, or to hold office or to receive the publications of the Institute.

The Council shall have power to remit the annual subscription or arrears thereof in case of a member who, from ill-health, advanced age, or other sufficient cause, is unable to pay the same, or to accept from him in lieu thereof any manuscripts, books, drawings, models or specimens which are in their opinion valuable to the Institute. In such case or in consideration of eminent service to the Institute, the Council shall have power to grant a life membership without fee.

10. If any complaint is brought against a member, the charge shall be in writing, signed by the complainant, and shall be considered by the Council, and opportunity given for a reply. If the Council deem it desirable, they may then call a special general meeting for the consideration of the matter at issue, of which not less than a week's notice shall be given, and if two-thirds of the members present at that meeting are of opinion that such member should be expelled, the officer presiding thereat shall pronounce his expulsion, and the fee paid by the member for the current year shall be refunded to him.

11. For the study of special branches of Literature, Science and Art, members may group themselves into such Sections as the Council may from time to time approve, subject to the ratification of the Institute at any of its ordinary meetings. Each Section shall form its own regulations and by-laws, but subject to the sanction of the Council, to whom they shall be transmitted for that purpose. Associate members who join any Section may vote and hold any office therein, except that of Chairman, and take part in all its proceedings.

The Revenue derived from the investment of the said principal money shall be deposited in a Chartered Bank of the Dominion of Canada in the name of the said trustees or of an Honorary Treasurer to be appointed by them and shall be applied to the purpose of the respective funds in accordance with regulations approved by the Council of the Institute. In the event of a vacancy in the Board of Trustees, the place of the Chairman, the President of the Institute or the Treasurer of the Institute shall be filled, as the case may be, by a Chairman selected by the Council, the acting President or the acting Treasurer.

Periodicals shall not be loaned until they have been on the table one month in the case of monthlies and quarterlies, and one week in the case of weeklies.

Any member may obtain the loan of any exchange from the Reading Room after it has been 14 days on the table, not to exceed two numbers at any one time, for a period not longer than 14 days, which may be renewed for further periods on presentation of the volume at the Institute, if in the meantime no request for the same has been made by any other member.

Non-resident members may obtain the loan of periodicals, exchanges or books, by paying the postage both ways.

No book or periodical shall be removed from the Library or Reading Room without the permission of the Librarian, and the presentation of a ticket signed by the applicant, who shall be responsible for the books, etc., taken out until such ticket is cancelled. The permission of the Librarian for the use of Books stored in the Library of the University of Toronto may be obtained by application to the Assistant Secretary at the office of the Institute.

Any person not a member of the Institute, engaged in any special scientific enquiry or research, may be allowed to consult the exchanges and books under such rules and regulations as the Council shall from time to time determine.
